XENIX ETF AWARDS 2020: Newcomers, test winners and special prizes

The rating provider XENIX has awarded ETFs and their providers for the third time.

ETF newcomers

The first category of the XENIX ETF AWARDS is dedicated to newcomers. Some of these award-winning newcomers offer German ETF investors the opportunity to invest in previously inaccessible or previously unavailable markets. Or these newcomers offer for the first-time investments in blue chips or in the broad market for euro zone equities which are applying a sustainable ESG approach.

"In the opinion of XENIX, the eight excellent newcomer ETFs are useful additions for private and professional ETF investors," says Wieland Thyssen, spokesman for the management at XENIX. "They are the avant-garde of the approximately 200 ETFs that were launched on the stock exchange in Germany in 2019."

Awards for best-rated ETFs

In the second category of the XENIX ETF AWARDS are high-quality ETFs honoured which are currently offering investors the best XENIX ETF rating in their market segment. The 2020 winners are given out in these four categories: DAX ETFs, broad market European equity ETFs, euro corporate bond ETFs and global dividend ETFs.

Special awards

On the occasion of the 20th birthday of the ETF market in Germany on April 11, 2020, XENIX is also awarding special awards to outstanding players who have strongly helped to develop the German ETF market since 2000. The award-winning institutions are (in alphabetical order): Börse Stuttgart, Comdirect, DAB BNP Paribas and Deutsche Börse in Frankfurt.

"The two direct banks Comdirect and DAB are real pioneers in ETF savings plans without bank fees," says Wieland Thyssen, XENIX managing director. "They have made ETFs with transaction-free ETF savings plans even more popular for investors in Germany."
